

135 FINE, BLUE SKY LOCKDOWN

Verse 1

One hundred and thirty-five fine
There's a price to pay
To manifest our voice
Our love
To escape
The story of Anonymous
And Anonymous 2
Blue sky lockdown

Chorus 1

We ARE the new generation
We ARE motivation
We have hope

Verse 2

Anonymous 1

Closed restaurants, closed shops
Closed gym, empty football grounds
Stuck on our screens, on the news

Australian fires and the Uyghurs
George Floyd, George Orwell

It's such a silent spring
Only delivery vans and keyboards
Interrupting the birds

I think I'd fancy a tan
Behind my mask

Yet after the lockdown we rediscover the world
Happiness is in little things
Reunited with friends and family

Anonymous 2

I wish I could forget this pandemic

I wish I could forget this pandemic

I wish I could see my grandparents

I wish I could go to the cinema

I wish I could dance in festivals

I've been dreaming of the south all year
The twenty-first is here
Finally
Tired of being nostalgic
Let's make memories
Let's not waste our time
With you the darkness of life will disappear
Without you I will drown

It took me a one hundred and thirty-five fine to realise how much I love you

Chorus 2

We ARE the new generation
We ARE motivation
We ARE independent
We ARE education
We ARE the nation x2
We have hope

We are many
We are free
We are love X 2
We are now x2

Verse 3

135 fine
It took me a one hundred and thirty-five fine
To realise how much I love you
135 fine
It took me a one hundred and thirty-five fine
To realise the sky was blue
135 fine

We have to stand
Have to watch
Have to do

Something new
Others knew
But didn't do
Sacred to do

We have to stand
Have to watch
Have to do

Blue blue blue

Short Chorus 3

135 fine
It took me a one hundred and thirty-five fine
To realise the sky was blue
135 fine

We have to stand
Have to act
Persevere

Something new
for all of you

We have to stand
Have to act
Persevere

Something new

We ARE the new generation
We ARE motivation
We have hope
